ABOUT THIS WORKBOOK

May Allah (SWT) accept your beautiful journey of Umrah and make it a source of blessings for your family!

This workbook has been specially designed to help children capture their Umrah experience in a fun, engaging, and meaningful way. It's a mix of learning, reflection, and enjoyable activities — all to help them remember this special trip for years to come.

Dear parents, your support is key! Please guide your children through these activities, have meaningful conversations with them, and feel free to share helpful videos, stories, and resources from scholars to enrich their understanding.

Let's get started, in shaa Allah — with hearts full of love for Allah and excitement to learn!

Papa:

Good news kids. We are going for Umrah! Let's prepare!

TIME TO TRAVEL

Recite the dua for travelling. Bismillah!

Glory be to Allah, who made this ride easy for us, because we couldn't do it by ourselves. And we will return to our Lord. O Allah, we ask You on this trip to help us be good, to fear You, and to do things that make You happy. O Allah, make this trip easy for us, and make the way feel short. O Allah, You are with us on the trip, and You are taking care of our family. O Allah, I ask You to protect me from the difficulties of traveling, seeing bad things, and coming back home to bad things with our family and things.

Anas: Mum, I have heard that Umrah starts at Meeqat and that's from where we have to be in Ihram garments. When is our plane going to stop at Meeqat?

Mama:

Oh, sorry for this sweetie, but our plane won't stop at Meeqat! I know you have become sad to hear this but this is how it works with the airplanes.

- [ ] Take shower before travel
- [ ] Pray 2 rakat in air or before travel
- [ ] Make intention in the plane
- [ ] Keep wearing jeans when passing the meeqat
- [ ] Wear Ihram over normal clothing

- [ ] Start Talbiyyah after passing meeqat

MEEQAT

YOU'RE AT THE MEEQAT!

The Meeqat is the special place where you get ready before entering Makkah for Umrah or Hajj. There are 5 Meeqats around Makkah.

At the Meeqat, pilgrims:

✅ Put on their Ihram (if not already in it)
✅ Make niyyah (intention) for Umrah
✅ Start saying the Talbiyah (Labbayk Allahumma...)

Huzaifa, a cousin of Emma and Anas, was on his way to Umrah with his parents and they stopped at Dhul Hulaifa.

🎨 Color the chat bubbles that show the correct Meeqat actions in green! Color the incorrect ones as red.

One of Anas's friends, Hanzala, was travelling by sea. He told him that they would be catching fish and eating them all along. Anas got concerned if the umrah of his friend was accepted or not. He went to the shaykh. The shaykh advised:

"During Hajj or 'Umrah, Muslims are not allowed to hunt animals that live on land, like deer or rabbits. But they are allowed to catch fish or other sea animals. Also, no one can hunt inside the holy area around Makkah, even if they're not on Hajj. That was a very good question, Anas — may Allah bless you for wanting to learn more about your religion!"
